

BAJA CALIFORNIA: AMONG THE GREAT WHALES

Travel with Professor Eric Fossum

EXPEDITIONS

February 27-March 6, 2027 | Aboard the National Geographic Venture

SPECIAL OFFER: 20% GROUP SAVINGS

Dear Alumni, Family, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Baja California is a remarkable destination. It provides an opportunity to discover and revel in an untamed wilderness few people imagine exists in our North American backyard. Join us on an adventure to the Gulf of California and visit a lagoon where whales spend the winter months and begin instructing their young before making the annual migratory trek to rich Arctic waters.

Roam freely aboard National Geographic Venture, a nimble expedition ship ruled by wind, waves and weather, and have the kind of experiences that only nature can provide. In winter, California gray whales give birth and raise their calves in the nursery lagoons. Spend time among them as you board local pangas for extraordinary up-close encounters with these gentle giants and their playful calves.

Explore the Gulf of California, where there are countless opportunities to experience a living sea. Observe dolphins by the score and encounter a variety of whales, including breaching humpbacks and perhaps even rare blue whales. Snorkel lively coral reefs, hike into cactus forests of surreal beauty, kayak along remote coastlines—and generally have the place to yourselves.

See, learn and do more with a team of expert naturalists, including an undersea specialist, who know this area well. For photographers, this paradise offers extraordinary light to capture it all with the help of a certified photo instructor.

To reserve your place, please complete the reservation form, email groups@expeditions.com, or call 833-985-1261.

Baja California: Among the Great Whales

8 Days | From $5,160pp

February 27–March 6, 2027 | National Geographic Venture

This eight-day itinerary explores Baja California's pristine coastlines and living sea in search of dolphins, sea lions and as many as five different varieties of whales. Board local pangas and enter sheltered lagoons for up-close encounters with California gray whale mothers and their newborn calves. Witness an undersea wonderland, serene desert isles and some of the most beautiful sunsets on Earth. Hike through towering cacti forests and up striking desert canyons or take a slow photo stroll along the shore. Every day is different and rewarding, with opportunities to indulge in active or relaxing pursuits.

Day 1 • Loreto, Mexico / Embark Ship

Day 2 • Bahía Concepción

Day 3 • Exploring the Gulf of California

Day 4 • Pacific Coast Gray Whale Lagoons

Days 5-7 • Cabo Pulmo / Los Islotes /
Gulf of California

Day 8 • Loreto / Disembark Ship

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

- Enter gray whale birthing lagoons for up-close encounters with gray whale mother-calf pairs.
- Embark on regular marine safaris in search of dolphins, sea lions and up to six species of whales.
- Snorkel amidst vibrant sea life, including playful sea lions at Los Islotes.
- Hike desert isles, including Espíritu Santo Archipelago National Park, and witness the variety of flora and fauna thriving in this region.
- Spot myriad bird species, including diving pelicans, magnificent frigatebirds and brown and blue-footed boobies.
- With National Geographic Explorers-in-Training, our exclusive family program, kids and teens will learn about this vibrant part of the world—from migrating gray whales to desert plant species.
