AIX-EN-PROVENCE

Alumni Travel

May 25 – June 2, 2027

Dear Alumni, Family, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Join us, in partnership with the Rassias Center, for an enriching seven-night immersion in the picturesque Provence region of France. Unpack once in a first-class hotel in Aix-en-Provence ("Aix"), your home for the week. From there, set out on curated excursions through the Provençal countryside and participate in four French language sessions using The Rassias Method.® Led by the accompanying Rassias language and local instructors, each workshop offers personalized guidance, deep linguistic insight and cultural perspective.

Get acquainted with Aix during a guided stroll along the enchanting Cours Mirabeau and feel the artist's presence on a visit to Paul Cézanne's atelier. Discover medieval Avignon with a tour of the 14th-century Palais des Papes and marvel at the remarkably preserved Pont du Gard aqueduct, a feat of Roman engineering. Explore antiquity-rich Arles on a guided walk among ancient Roman ruins, including the colossal Les Arènes amphitheatre. Plus, delight in a winery tour and Rhône tasting in Châteauneuf-du-Pape, visit a truffle plantation and olive grove to search for fresh truffles, and learn to play the beloved game of pétanque!

Thoughtfully designed for educational enrichment with expert guides, language instructors and lecturers, this exceptional program is a perennial favorite. Guarantee your spot by making your reservation today!

Pont du Gard

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart your gateway city for Marseille, France. 🚗

Day 2 | Marseille | Aix-en-Provence

Upon arrival, transfer 🚗 and check in to the hotel in Aix, your home for the week. Join your Travel Director for a brief orientation walk in Aix to get acquainted with the area.

Welcome Reception & Dinner. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers to toast the week ahead in a warm, convivial atmosphere.

Day 3 | Aix-en-Provence

Language Lesson: Parlons Français

Begin the first of four engaging French language sessions, led by the accompanying Dartmouth language professor and a local instructor, who offer personalized guidance and cultural insight.

Aix-en-Provence. Explore this captivating capital of Provence, affectionately called “Aix” by locals. Enjoy a guided stroll beneath the lovely canopy of plane trees along the wide Cours Mirabeau, one of Europe’s most beautiful boulevards. Stroll past terrace cafés, quaint bookshops and elegant mansions adorned with wrought-iron balconies and sculpted façades from the 17th and 18th centuries. Admire the sacred Aix-en-Provence Cathedral, featuring three architectural styles, and the baroque Place de l’Hôtel de Ville. See Paul Cézanne’s childhood home. The artist was born in Aix and later returned to live and establish his final painting studio, nestled on Lauves Hill.

Cézanne’s studio, Aix

Cézanne’s Studio. Visit l’Atelier des Lauves and sense the master’s presence among the models for his final still lifes and the furnishings and tools he used. Imagine the visionary at work with majestic Sainte-Victoire, his beloved motif, rising in the distance. Gain a deeper appreciation for Cézanne’s enduring influence on Post-Impressionism and modern art. Tonight, gather at an Aix restaurant for an authentic Provençal dinner.

Day 4 | Cassis

Language Lesson: Parlons Français

Cassis & its Calanques. Take a scenic drive to Cassis, a picture-perfect fishing village bathed in Mediterranean sunshine. Arrive and savor a delicious lunch featuring seafood and regional specialties. Next, cruise through the famous calanques and marvel at the dramatic limestone cliffs, secluded inlets and striking rock spires rising above dazzling turquoise waters. Return to Cassis, meander through town if time permits, then return to your hotel in Aix.

Day 5 | Arles

Free Time: Stroll the outdoor markets of Aix.

Language Lesson: Parlons Français

Arles & Les Arènes Tour. Enjoy a guided walk along Arles' winding cobblestone streets, passing Roman ruins and buildings adorned with colorful shutters. Visit Les Arènes, the enormous Roman colosseum that still hosts bullfights. Admire the Church of St. Trophime and its cloister, a Romanesque masterpiece, and pass by Café Van Gogh, which inspired the artist's iconic "Café Terrace at Night."

Free Time: Amble around Arles at leisure.

Day 6 | Avignon

Palais des Papes. Revel in ancient history and Gothic architecture on a guided visit to the massive, medieval Pope's Palace. Tour the Old and New Palaces, the papal residences for seven popes in the 14th century when the papal court moved from Rome to Avignon. Gain insight into the palace's storied, turbulent past, and marvel at the faded, centuries-old frescoes and the Pope's Chamber, where the Pope's private apartments were located.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Relish a scenic drive to the southern Rhône Valley and the famed wine-making village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Visit a winery for a tour and lunch, then savor a tasting of classic, full-bodied Rhône wines.

Pont du Gard. Contemplate this colossal, ancient wonder and architectural masterpiece, built by the Romans in 19 B.C. The remarkably preserved, three-tiered aqueduct is hailed as a Roman engineering marvel, constructed without mortar to carry water to Nîmes. Walk across the remarkable 160-foot-high bridge and stroll along the Gard River amid peaceful, natural surroundings.

Enrichment: Splendors of Aix-en-Provence and the South of France

Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Cathédrale Saint-Trophime, Arles

Day 7 | Cadenet

AHI Connects | Les Pastras. Travel to the striking Luberon mountain region for a tour of Les Pastras, an organic truffle plantation and olive grove run by a Franco-American couple. Join professional hunters in search of France's elusive "black gold." Savor a tasting of fresh truffle canapés, olive oils and Champagne, followed by an idyllic Provençal lunch.

The Game of Pétanque. Then, join a spirited match of Provence's favorite pastime. Learn the art of shooting, scoring and playful rule-bending, while sipping rosé and pastis amid good-natured rivalry!

Day 8 | Aix-en-Provence

Language Lesson: Parlons Français

Free Time: Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure to explore more of Aix, from art museums and outdoor markets to fountains galore!

Farewell Reception & Dinner. Bid au revoir to your fellow travelers and Aix this evening.

Day 9 | In Transit
