On board the exclusively chartered, Five-Star M.S. LE SOLEAL, join travelers from Columbia, Northwestern, and other like-minded institutions as you cruise from Himeji, Japan, and enjoy your voyage along the coast of the tranquil Inland Sea and South Korea, with port calls featuring five UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Prior to embarking the ship, spend three nights in the enchanting city of Kyoto, its serene landscape brimming with elegant cherry blossom trees. See the historic monuments of ancient Kyoto, a designated UNESCO World Heritage site—visit the temples of Ryoan-ji, Kinkaku-ji and Kiyomizu and Nijo Castle, an imperial gem. Stroll through the red-orange torii gates and temple grounds of the Fushimi Inari Shrine and walk through the most famous geisha district in all of Japan, the Gion District.

Visit Himeji Castle, the oldest surviving feudal structure of medieval Japan; walk through Peace Memorial Park in Hiroshima and visit its comprehensive museum; tour Itsukushima Shrine in Miyajima with its awe-inspiring Great Torii Gate, which appears to float on water at high tide. In Gyeongju, South Korea, see the glorious Bulguksa Temple, which represents the material expression of Buddhist utopia on Earth, and the ancient Silla Kingdom Royal Burial Mounds. In Moji, admire the beautiful Mekari and Akama Shrines, and observe the lively excitement of a Japanese fish market.

Study Leader

Dirk Vandewalle has been a member of the Dartmouth faculty since 1991. He teaches courses in comparative international development in Dartmouth’s Government Department and a course on the Arab Gulf at the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College. In addition to his academic work on the politics of economic development in the Middle East and the developing world, he has written extensively for policy journals and magazines of general interest, including Newsweek, The New York Times, Foreign Policy, and Foreign Affairs. He is the author of two internationally acclaimed books on Libya: Libya Since Independence (Cornell University Press, 1998) and A History of Modern Libya (Cambridge University Press, 2006; second edition 2012) and several edited volumes and several dozen academic articles on North Africa. A History of Modern Libya was selected as one of the highlight titles in The New York Times travel section. In addition to his academic work, Dirk consults extensively for regional and international development banks and institutions and, most recently, for a number of Gulf State ministries on educational projects. On this trip, he will discuss the legacy of the war on Japanese politics and the legacy of the Korean War on South Korean politics.
Traditions, Ceremony and Ritual

A mysterious island nation, one of unsurpassed natural beauty and a way of life found nowhere else in the world, Japan and its fascinating culture is laden with ancient spiritual rituals, symbolism, stately ceremony and rich, storied tradition—the beginnings of which originated thousands of years ago. Tea ceremonies, Goh drama, ikebana (the way of the flowers), matsuri (the many seasonal festivals of worship) and classical landscape gardens are just some of the long-held traditions an immersion into Japanese culture will unveil. Experience the time-honored formality of the tea ceremony and look for the four different types of classical gardens: the paradise garden, kare-sansui (dry landscape) garden, stroll garden and tea garden, each with a different symbolic interpretation. You have the opportunity to stroll the harmonious landscaping of Koraku-en Gardens near Okayama. And, perhaps silent contemplation will reveal to you the lessons of the kare-sansui rock garden at Ryōan-ji, Kyoto’s Temple of the Peaceful Dragon, founded in 1450. This garden, one of the most famous in the world, represents the ultimate expression of Zen Buddhism—legend says that only 14 of the 15 rocks in the garden can be seen at once, and only when you attain spiritual enlightenment does the final stone reveal itself.

Osaka, Japan/Kyoto
Thursday, May 5

Kyoto
Friday, May 6
In timeless Kyoto, enjoy an ethereal setting of grand imperial castles, tranquil Zen gardens and graceful Shinto shrines that manifest Japanese culture in its purest form. Many of Kyoto’s ancient buildings and gardens are designated UNESCO World Heritage sites, including grandiose Nijō Castle, built by the shogun of the powerful Tokugawa dynasty (1603 to 1867); iconic Kinkaku-ji Temple, the famed 14th-century Temple of the Golden Pavilion, whose top two floors are completely adorned with gold leaf; and the Ryōan-ji Temple, originally an aristocrat’s villa during the Heian Period (794 to 1185), featuring a contemplative rock garden. Drawing inspiration from the Zen gardens of Kyoto, Steve Jobs used Ryōan-ji Temple as a place of meditation and its minimalistic simplicity as the guiding aesthetic principle of Apple™ products.

This afternoon, enjoy a visit to the captivating Fushimi Inari Shrine, one of the oldest Shinto shrines in Japan—the earliest structures were constructed in 711, dedicated to the deity of sake and rice. Its iconic red-orange torii gates lead up in succession to the magnificent Inari Mountain.

Join your traveling companions for a Welcome Reception this evening.

Originally a small fishing port, the cultural town of Hagi was fortified by Môri Terumoto in 1604. Enjoy a walking tour of the old samurai quarter, where many former samurai dwellings still stand and the roads are lined with original 19th-century earthen walls. Visit the early 17th-century Kikuya House, the former residence of a merchant wealthy enough to live among the samurai and one of the best-preserved examples of merchant-style architecture from the Edo Period. Tour the 17th-century Toko-ji Temple, from the Obaku School of Japanese Zen Buddhism, and see its 500 moss-covered stone lanterns honoring the Môri clan lords. Visit a Hagi-yaki pottery kiln, where highly prized tea wares are produced using centuries-old skills and craft techniques, and the Hagi Uragami Museum, which displays over 5000 traditional woodblock prints and porcelain pieces.

Walk through the elaborately designed 17 historic monuments of ancient Gyeongju's Buddhist Bulguksa Temple is an important site and stand as a universal symbol of peace. Visit the Peace Memorial Museum, which chronicles the history of Hiroshima.

Ulsan, South Korea, for Gyeongju
Thursday, May 12
Travel across the magnificent landscape from Ulsan, South Korea, to the cradle of the Silla Kingdom (57 B.C. to A.D. 935) in the historic city of Gyeongju. Visit the glorious Bulguksa Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage site and part of a religious architectural complex that represents a material expression of Buddhist utopia on Earth. The complex is divided into three areas—the Vairocana Buddha Hall, the Hall of Great Enlightenment and the Hall of Supreme Bliss—and comprises a series of wooden buildings on raised stone terraces, featuring multiple bridges and two pagodas.

Visit Gyeongju National Museum, which houses priceless archaeological and historical artifacts. Enjoy a specially arranged Korean lunch in a local restaurant featuring the regional specialty, galbi gui.

After lunch, visit the Royal Burial Mounds at Tumuli Park where, in 1974, the 43-foot-high Cheonmachong (Heavenly Horse) Tomb, dating from the fifth century, was excavated, revealing over 10,000 royal treasures inside.

Visit the old merchant quarter and walk among the traditional kara (granary) buildings beside small, tranquil canals framed by weeping willows. Or, choose to visit the famous Koraku-en Gardens, situated on the outskirts of Okayama. Commissioned by Lord Ikedo in 1700, it is a classic strolling garden divided into three sections featuring bamboo, pine, plum and cherry trees and tea bushes.
