Rosini Lippi

Homestead
1999, PAPER, 210 PAGES, $13.95
Set firmly in a small village in the Austrian Alps, these 12 interlinking stories are almost ethnographic in their rich detail of small town life. The stories range from the turn-of-the-century to the present, accurately charting change in the remote village. (Item ALP11)

James Salter

Solo Faces
1998, PAPER, 218 PAGES, $15.00
The story of an American climber who, dissatisfied with his everyday life, travels to the Alps of southern France to tackle mountain peaks. The prose is glorious and the mountain-climbing scenes are as vivid as they get. Much of the action takes place in and around Chamonix. (Item ALP14)

Joseph Roth, Joachim Neugroschel (Translator)

The Radetzky March
2002, PAPER, 331 PAGES, $16.95
