ALSO RECOMMENDED

Mike Miller
Alaska’s Southeast, Touring the Inside Passage
2008, PAPER, 295 PAGES, $17.95
Our best-selling book on Alaska, this practical guide includes not just information on where to go and what to do in the region (with terrific town maps) but also a good overview of the area’s natural history, culture and geography. (Item ALA23)

Walter R. Borneman
Alaska, Saga of a Bold Land
2004, PAPER, 608 PAGES, $16.99
In this wide-ranging history, Borneman captures the personalities, bravura and challenges of Alaska, describing the days of the fur traders and explorers, the gold rush, the building of the railroads and current controversies. (Item ALA187)

Maria Shaa Williams
The Alaska Native Reader: History, Culture, Politics
2009, PAPER, 242 PAGES, $26.95
This multifaceted anthology allows native Alaskans to speak for themselves. Composed of essays, poems, lyrical accounts of first contacts with Russian explorers, songs, maps and visual art, the sourcebook is a brilliant survey of the culture and history of the indigenous groups of the region. (Item ALA304)
