Aboard the Exclusively Chartered Small Ship
Five-Star M.S. Le Lyrial

Explore. Discover. Learn.
Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth:

Explore dynamic crossroads of the Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations and their distinctive, deep-rooted cultures that flourished for more than three thousand years. This exciting, comprehensive and custom-designed small ship itinerary takes us along the pathway of these great civilizations into five countries—Greece, Albania, Montenegro, Croatia and Italy—and to six UNESCO World Heritage sites.

Begin your journey in Athens, the birthplace of Western civilization, where you will board the exclusively chartered, Five-Star M.S. LE LYRIAL, an exceptional small ship featuring only 110 Suites and Staterooms. Cruise from the Aegean Sea through the extraordinary Corinth Canal, an unrivaled experience possible only by a small ship that can maneuver this narrow passage between soaring, 300-foot limestone walls across the Isthmus of Corinth. Continue along the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea through the stunning region of Dalmatia and on to Venice—known for centuries as La Serenissima, “the most serenely beautiful city.”

Call on splendid walled cities, medieval villages, picture-perfect islands and the spectacularly dramatic fjord-like Bay of Kotor while sailing these pristine azure waters. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage sites of historic Split and the fourth-century Roman Emperor Diocletian’s Palace, now home to a thriving 21st-century community; the seventh-century walled city of Dubrovnik; picturesque Kotor, Montenegro; the remarkable Greco-Roman site of Butrint, Albania; the Old Town of Corfu, Greece, settled in the eighth century B.C.; and Itea for the ancient Greek site of Delphi—cruising into many smaller, seldom-visited ports of call inaccessible to larger ships.

Discover hidden gems along the beautiful Adriatic and Aegean coastlines at just the right pace as daily life unfolds before you and the past and present coalesce. Enjoy our private, specially arranged lectures, exclusive CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS and the insightful COASTAL LIFE FORUM® featuring local Croatian residents who will provide their personal perspectives on contemporary life along the Dalmatian coast.

We invite you to join us and like-minded travelers from Duke University, Harvard University and Johns Hopkins University for this carefully planned cruise from Athens to Venice, two iconic centers of flourishing civilizations and remarkable culture. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Susan Ackerman ’80, the Preston H. Kelsey Professor of Religion, joined the Dartmouth faculty in 1990 after completing her graduate work at Harvard and after brief stints teaching at Winthrop College, in South Carolina, and the University of Arizona. Although she is a specialist in the religion of ancient Israel and the religions of Israel’s eastern Mediterranean and ancient Near Eastern neighbors (Mesopotamia, Egypt, and Canaan), she is also very interested in Europe’s religious heritage and has given lectures related to aspects of this heritage on several previous Dartmouth Alumni Continuing Education trips (e.g., Alumni Campus Abroad in Scotland in June 2002 and “From Lisbon to London” in May 2004). Professor Ackerman received the Faculty Award for Service to Alumni Continuing Education in 2006 in recognition for her work on these trips and in other alumni events. Professor Ackerman’s publications include several articles and three books, Under Every Green Tree: Popular Religion in Sixth-Century Judah; Warrior, Dancer, Seductress, Queen: Women in Judges and Biblical Israel; and When Heroes Love: The Ambiguity of Eros in the Stories of Gilgamesh and David.

Odyssey of Ancient Civilizations

Experience firsthand the true character and traditions of coastal and island life along the Adriatic and Aegean Seas, among the world’s most spectacular coastlines, and discover the lasting influence of Greco-Roman, Byzantine, Venetian and Slavic civilizations as you cruise through this charming, sun-kissed region. Enjoy an enriching travel experience like no other aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star small ship M.S. Le Lyrical, featuring elegant accommodations and a specially designed included excursion in every port. Interact with local residents, explore the ancient civilizations, history, culture, architecture and art—and unpack just once! This popular program is one of the COASTAL LIFE® series, a comprehensive and intimate cruise and land experience at just the right pace.

Cultural Enrichments are custom-designed and specially arranged for this exclusive itinerary:

- Immerse yourself in a carefully planned, balanced itinerary of included guided historical and cultural excursions and time on your own to discover and observe the heart and soul of coastal life from the Aegean to the Adriatic.

- Trace the enduring impressions of Greco-Roman, Venetian, Byzantine, Slavic and modern civilizations on local culture along the Aegean and Adriatic coast, exhibited in the captivating ruins of the UNESCO World Heritage site of Butrint and the contemporary culture that thrives in the remains of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s fourth-century palace in the historic Old Town of Split.

- Walk in the footsteps of the Oracle of Delphi and visit the attractive Old Town of Corfu, a crossroads of civilization and UNESCO World Heritage site.

- Hear it from the Experts! Noted study leaders and experienced, English-speaking local guides will accompany you throughout the program and discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Croatia, Montenegro, Greece and Albania.

- Marvel at the amazing Corinth Canal, scarcely 70 feet wide at its narrowest point, a unique passage possible only by small ship.

- Interact with local Croatians during the COASTAL LIFE FORUM® where they will share their candid perspectives on contemporary life.

- Enjoy a private performance of klapa music—traditional Croatian a cappella, multi-part songs sung with blended voices.

- Savor the flavors and aromas of Mediterranean and international cuisine aboard the ship.

Seventeen centuries ago, Roman galleons anchored in the scenic harbor of Split and began construction of the ancient Roman Emperor Diocletian’s Palace.
Explore the finely preserved, medieval island port of Korčula, encircled by its original 13th-century walls and impressive Venetian-built bastions and towers.

Corinth Canal, Greece
Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to cruise through the Corinth Canal, the conduit for the migration of civilizations between the Aegean and Adriatic Seas. First proposed at the end of the seventh century B.C., the canal was not fully realized until completion by a French engineering company in 1893. An impressive waterway that cuts through the Isthmus of Corinth, at one point only 70 feet wide, it is so narrow that only small ships can make its passage.

Cultural Enrichment: Transit the Corinth Canal aboard your small ship, a rare and thrilling voyage highlight.

Delphi
Ancient Greeks from all walks of life flocked to the sacred ground on Mount Parnassus to consult Pythia, the high priestess of the Temple of Apollo, on matters as routine as farming and as monumental as the declaration of war. Enjoy a walk along the Sacred Way that leads to the Temple of Apollo and stand at the marble Altar of the Chians, where the common and the mighty awaited the oracle’s pronouncements. Tour the magnificent Delphi Archaeological Museum, a treasure trove of ancient artifacts including a life-size fifth-century B.C. bronze charioteer.

Cultural Enrichment: Walking tour through the spectacular ruins of the iconic sanctuary of Delphi, considered the center of the Greek world in the sixth century B.C. and today a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Corfu
Cruise to the Ionian island of Corfu, Homer’s “beautiful and rich land,” where the varying cultural influences of past rulers are reflected in the French boulevards, Georgian mansions, Venetian citadel and Greek temple. Walk through the city’s picturesque Old Town and tour the Old Fortress, a hilltop Venetian fortification whose twin peaks inspired the name of Corfu, “Coryphe” in Greek, meaning “peaks.”

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a walking tour of the Old City in Corfu Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site. See the Town Hall, once a Venetian theater, built in 1690, and the Edwardian Palace of the King of Greece.

Butrint, Albania
Virgil speaks of Butrint as a parvam Troiam (little Troy), a stop for Aeneas and his exiled Trojans on their epic journey. Today, Butrint’s ruins, a UNESCO World Heritage site, trace the rise and fall of three thousand years of ancient civilizations, from the Greek and Roman to the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires. The Greco-Roman amphitheater highlights the city’s rich cultural life during boom times. Public baths, a gymnasion and an aqueduct built by Emperor Caesar Augustus offer glimpses of Butrint as a Roman port, while the intricately tiled Baptistery depicts its ties to early Christianity. A short drive to 16th-century Lekursi Castle provides a stunning panoramic view of the picturesque coastal city of Sarandë.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Tour the revelatory remains of Butrint, where ancient history is displayed through its well-preserved archaeological ruins.

Kotor, Montenegro
Montenegro is one of the newest nations in the world, having gained its independence from Serbia in 2006. The incredible Bay of Kotor, deeply carved into the Montenegrin mountains, leads to the charming town of Kotor, a UNESCO World Heritage site known for its Venetian Baroque Old Town and impressive medieval fortifications.

Dubrovnik, Croatia
Affectionately called “the pearl of the Adriatic,” the entire city of Dubrovnik is a UNESCO World Heritage site in recognition of its historic treasures and incomparable beauty. The city’s most famous landmarks include the Franciscan Monastery, the 15th-century Rector’s Palace, the well-preserved Old City walls and the fascinating Maritime Museum.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a specially arranged, traditional Croatian a cappella klapa performance.

Korčula
The charming island city of Korčula retains its original 13th-century walls, within which you will find the Abbey Treasury, home to a priceless collection of medieval manuscripts and artwork; the house where Marco Polo is said to have been born—a widely contested notion between Croats and Venetians; and masterful works by Tintoretto, housed in the 15th-century, Gothic-Renaissance-style Cathedral of St. Mark.

Split
Enjoy a walking tour of Split’s historic city center, a UNESCO World Heritage site, built on the foundation of Roman Emperor Diocletian’s retirement palace. Today, people live and work in this thriving, nearly 2000-year-old complex. Visit the Temple of Jupiter, considered to be one of the best-preserved Roman temples in the world, and the Cathedral of Saint Domnius, regarded as the world’s oldest Catholic cathedral (A.D. 305) that remains in use in its original structure.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS: In 1947, Ivan Meštrović, one of the most renowned artists of the 20th century and Croatia’s most accomplished sculptor, became the first living artist to exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. Experience his unique vision on a visit to the Ivan Meštrović Gallery.

Be on deck to cruise through the Corinth Canal—only 70 feet wide at its narrowest point—a passage only small ships can navigate.
Five-Star, Small Ship
M.S. LE LYRIAL

Five-Star, Small Ship,
