Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Travel experts have also incorporated an exclusive educational component into this journey, enriching our experience. Our expert guide, Barbara Kreiger, is an adjunct associate professor and chair of creative writing at Dartmouth College. She is the author of “The Soul and the Body,” a memoir of her adventures as a woman in the 19th-century Middle East. This will be the first in a series of such journeys that will explore the rich cultural heritage of the Middle East through the lens of memoir and travel writing for a number of years at the College and in the Alumni College.

Join us for an enriching discovery of Tuscany, a region cherished the world over for its rich cultural heritage. Tuscany’s historic hilltop towns are living postcards, where ancient ramparts embrace and value of group travel, as well as the opportunities for exploring independently. Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

We’re excited to invite you to explore our new trip to Tuscany, Italy. This program is designed for Dartmouth alumni and their guests and provides an immersive experience of Tuscany’s rich cultural history and stunning natural beauty. Dartmouth’s special relationship with Italy is the foundation of our travels, and it has been our mission to deliver unique educational experiences to our community. We’ve partnered with Dartmouth’s own Professor Jennifer Keelan, Chair of the Department of English and the Sprague Professor of English, to create a program that will transport you to the heart of Tuscany’s cultural heritage.

Professor Keelan has carefully crafted a program that includes visits to some of Tuscany’s most iconic sites, such as Florence, Siena, and Cortona. You’ll have the opportunity to experience the beauty of Tuscany’s rolling hills, vineyards, and ancient cities. In addition, you’ll have the chance to meet with local artists, writers, and historians to gain insights into the region’s rich tapestry of history and culture. This experience will be truly unforgettable, and we’re excited to share it with you.

To learn more about our trip to Tuscany or to register, please visit www.alumni.dartmouth.edu/travel. We’re looking forward to seeing you there.

Warm regards,

Professor Jennifer Keelan
Director of Lifelong Learning and Travel
Dartmouth College
