

IN PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

*Dartmouth College
Recognizes with Deep Appreciation
The Extraordinary Achievements of*

The Class of 1964
Special Recognition for Impressive Portfolio of Class Projects

The President and the Executive Committee of the Class of 1964 are recognized for their five class projects which demonstrate both the class' generosity and the classmates wide-reaching interests in helping the students and the Dartmouth of today.

The Class of 1964 is to be commended for:

- Funding five class projects during the 2010/11 year with generous contributions totalling $16,852
- Developing projects which have a special resonance for members of the class
- Significantly involving students in four of the five projects
- Following the College's guidelines for class projects and then taking these projects to the next level with extra opportunities for student/alumni interaction.

Classes are advised that class projects can provide an opportunity for classmates to be unified after graduation. Projects offer a common goal to be attained while also making a very real difference to the operations of the College. The Class of 1964 has taken this advice to heart and bettered many Dartmouth students' lives and programs in the process.
