Dartmouth Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

"It is scarcely possible to imagine anything more beautiful than the beryl-like blue of these glaciers," wrote Charles Darwin, awed by the striking iridescent blue-green ice while cruising southern Argentina and Chile in 1833. From the legendary Tierra del Fuego archipelago to magnificent glacier-studded fjords and sweeping pampas grasslands, you too can experience the extremes and contrasts of Patagonia—the tip of South America—which crosses the Andes Mountains from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

On this exclusive land and sea journey, assume the role of natural explorer, retracing the bold travels of Darwin and Ferdinand Magellan in southern Chile, a wild landscape still virtually untouched even more than a century after the first European settlers. Discover Santiago and the extraordinary diversity of Patagonia; travel through the crystalline wonders of Glacier Alley to Cape Horn, the "edge of the world."

Visit an award-winning winery in Santiago and walk Punta Arenas's main square, Plaza de Armas, lined with 19th-century mansions. Then, venture into the vast expanse of Patagonia to see sparkling glaciers, unique wildlife and the iconic peaks of Torres del Paine National Park.

Cruise aboard the expedition ship VENTUS AUSTRALIS, launching in 2018 and designed specifically for navigating the rich waterways of southern Patagonia, where mountains meet the seemingly endless ocean. The Chilean fjords offer, among their hidden islands and narrow channels, some of the world's best viewing of tidewater glaciers, subantarctic woodlands and marine wildlife—Andean condors, humpback whales, Peale's dolphins and rare Chilean dolphins. Cruise through two of the most historically significant, awe-inspiring passages in world exploration—Beagle Channel and the Strait of Magellan—accompanied by an onboard team of multilingual expert naturalists, who will enrich your expedition with their in-depth knowledge of the region's history, natural wonders and wildlife. The ship is equipped with Zodiac landing craft for excursions to observe glaciers up close as they crack and calve; distinctive species, including elephant seals, cormorants and endemic Magellanic penguins; and traces of the Yámanas, the original settlers of Wulaia Bay.

Join us, Bucknell University, Columbia University and Tufts University for this incredible voyage of a lifetime. Book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Exploring the “Edge of the Earth”

While sailing toward Indonesia’s fabled Spice Islands in 1520, Portuguese explorer Ferdinand Magellan became the first European to enter the channel that would later bear his name.

Along the south side of the strait, amid the world’s southernmost forests, smoke rose from numerous native Selk’nam campfires, leading Magellan to name this island Tierra del Humo, “land of smoke,” which Spain’s King Charles V changed to the more poetic Tierra del Fuego, “land of fire.” The northern side of the strait came to be known as Patagonia, “land of giants,” for Magellan and his men’s impression of the tall, indigenous inhabitants. Three centuries later, HMS Beagle, under the command of Admiral Robert FitzRoy and with young naturalist Charles Darwin on board, became the first ship to sail east to west through its namesake channel, which separates the Tierra del Fuego from the smaller islands that stretch down to Cape Horn. Experience the same wonderment of these intrepid explorers as you cruise through these mesmerizing landscapes almost untouched since Magellan explored them nearly 500 years ago. So as not to spoil Patagonia’s unsurpassed beauty, the VENTUS AUSTRALIS is fitted with the latest technology to meet environmental regulations and leave minimal impact on the navigation routes. Your crew and naturalist guides ensure that the group’s carbon footprint is neutral, both on board and ashore.

Santiago, Chile

Explore Santiago, Chile’s vibrant and modern capital in the foothills of the snowcapped Andes Mountains. Tour the highlights of the city’s indigenous and European-influenced architecture and culture, including the outstanding collections in the Museo Chileno de Arte Precolombino. Take in the stunning views of the city and surrounding mountains from atop San Cristóbal Hill. En route to the famous, 130-year-old Santa Rita Winery, enjoy views of the scenic Maipo Valley. A local expert will guide your vineyard tour and wine tasting.

Punta Arenas

The capital of Chile’s Magallanes province, historic Punta Arenas overlooks the Strait of Magellan and is the gateway to Patagonia. During the city tour, admire the Napoleonic architecture and 19th-century mansions lining the Plaza de Armas.

Puerto Natales

The heart of Patagonia unfolds before you in rugged visions of vast, rolling countryside against a backdrop of snowcapped mountains, where sheep, guanacos and the endangered lesser rhea roam.

Originally inhabited by the Tehuelche people for thousands of years, the town of Puerto Natales later served as a major transit point for the sheep and coal industries of 20th-century Patagonia. Delight in this region's charms at the Hostería Estancia Río Penitente Patagonian sheep ranch, today a preserved Victorian farmhouse owned by descendants of Scottish pioneers. Here, enjoy a traditional lunch and a sheep herding demonstration.

Your unique, Five-Star accommodations are in THE SINGULAR PATAGONIA, where historic, industrial architecture has been transformed into one of South America's finest hotels and is a recognized National Monument of Chile. Nearby in Milodón Cave, 1890s German pioneer Herman Eberhard discovered the prehistoric remains of a 13-foot giant sloth.

Torres del Paine National Park

South America's finest national park and a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, Torres Del Paines is one of National Geographic's most beautiful places in the world. Observe its pristine landscape of magnificent glaciers, lakes, dramatic mountain ranges and its abundance of distinctive wildlife—ostrich-like rheas, pumas, the endangered South Andean deer and guanacos, the predecessor to llamas and alpacas. From the shores of Grey Lake, admire the inspiring Torres del Paine Massif and Grey Glacier. Enjoy lunch in the park and survey its spectacular views of signature mountaintops—the massive, three-peaked Cordillera del Paine.

Cruising the Chilean Fjords

On board the small expedition ship VENTUS AUSTRALIS, cruise the channels and straits of Tierra del Fuego amid vivid, up-close blue tidewater glaciers. Formed by the Andes mountain range's southern end, these waterways are home to diverse species including elephant seals, cormorants, skua birds and Magellanic penguins.

Mystique of Easter Island

Pre-Program Option

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Easter Island and its unique archaeological treasures are shrouded in mystery. Centuries ago, people settled on this tiny island, a mere 64-square-mile speck amid the vast Pacific Ocean, more than 1200 miles from any other inhabited land. Questions remain as to how and when they arrived and why they sculpted hundreds of gigantic stone moai across the island. Visit its most important sites, including the basalt quarry from which the moai were carved, the white sand beach said to be the landing site of the island's first settler, and the village central to the Birdman culture, predominant until the arrival of Christian missionaries. Enjoy three nights in the deluxe HANGAROA ECOVILLAGE, a unique hotel with a spectacular natural setting.

Argentina's Ciudad y Selva Buenos Aires ♦ Iguazú Falls

Walk among the Argentine Falls and admire magnificent views of Devil's Gorge, the highest of the falls. In elegant Buenos Aires, see the colorful La Boca district, Monserrat's historic Plaza de Mayo, Palermo's lavish parks, Puerto Madero's riverfront community and the charming old quarter of San Telmo. Visit historic Recoleta Cemetery, famous for its ornate vaults and sculptures and as the final resting place of Eva Perón. Accommodations are for two nights each in the deluxe INTERCONTINENTAL BUENOS AIRES and in the deluxe MELIÁ IGUAZÚ in Iguazú National Park.
