Warm Regards from Hanover,
Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

A thoughtfully designed journey featuring enrichment from expert guides and lecturers, along with the endless opportunities to make your own discoveries during free time. Please approach the experience of other cruisers and travelers and make your own discoveries during free time.

Your Travel Director will stand ready to answer your questions from Dartmouth and its history, culture and current events. You’ll also choose excursions that speak to you in selected ports.

Jonathan Smolin teaches about the Middle East from multiple perspectives and a wide array of sources, from classical texts to social media, approaching the region as a site of nuance and complexity. He will expand his research and teaching on this program to consider the influence that the movement of people and culture from the MENA region into Europe has had on places like Amsterdam.

You’ve saved so much money, make your own discoveries during free time.

Warm Regards from Hanover,

Robin Albing TU’81

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Dartmouth alumns, students, and friends have always loved Europe, and Europe has loved Dartmouth. At its core is a belief that the study of Europe has never been as pertinent as it is today. The region remains a hub of innovation and a site of political and economic transformation. With this in mind, we’re thrilled to introduce a new offering: The Netherlands and Belgium Cruising Journey!

This cruise is a wonderful opportunity to explore the scenic canals of Amsterdam, Bruges, and Ghent, as well as the Netherlands countryside. From your cruise ship, you can enjoy the natural beauty of the Dutch countryside and the historical charm of the cities. The itinerary includes visits to iconic landmarks such as the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam, the Groeninge Museum in Bruges, and the Onze-Lieve-Vrouwekerk in Bruges. You’ll also have the opportunity to visit the historic city of Ghent, known for its medieval architecture and rich cultural heritage.

In addition to exploring the historical sites, you’ll also have the chance to meet with expert lecturers and guides who will share their knowledge and insights with you. The cruise includes a variety of activities, including guided tours, lectures, and optional excursions. You’ll have the chance to sample local cuisine, enjoy the scenery, and immerse yourself in the vibrant culture of the Netherlands and Belgium.

This cruise is ideal for alumni, parents, and friends of Dartmouth who are interested in European history, culture, and politics. Whether you’re a seasoned traveler or a first-time European visitor, this cruise is sure to provide a unique and enriching experience.

To book your journey, please call our AHI Travel Experts at 800-323-7373 or alumni.dartmouth.edu/travel.

Sincerely,

AHI Travel
