Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Embark on an adventure to Lisbon and the mystical Azores archipelago, 870 miles off Portugal's coast in the North Atlantic Ocean. Stay for two nights in Lisbon and eight nights on three Azorean islands. With your intimately small group, limited to 24 travelers, enjoy first-class hotels and internal flights as you uncover traditional, modern Lisbon and the Azores' pristine natural beauty and rich cultural heritage.

Begin in Lisbon with a tour of notable city sites. Then, fly to the Azores to discover Terceira, Faial, Pico and São Miguel islands on an island-hopping adventure! Explore picturesque villages, be thrilled by whale-watching, take a ferry ride to marvel at Pico's vineyard landscape and embark on a jeep excursion to Sete Cidades. You'll encounter otherworldly volcanic landscapes and ethereal crater lakes amid lush tropical forests. Along the way, delve into the Azores' whaling history, stroll beautiful botanical gardens and visit Europe's oldest tea plantation. Plus, savor a lunch of Cozido das Furnas stew cooked in hot lava rock, an experiential Azorean dinner and Pico's unique wines!

This exceptional program has been thoughtfully designed with educational enrichment from expert guides and lecturers. Our Azores Island Adventure will surely be a crowd-pleaser, so guarantee your spot by making your reservation today!

Lisbon

Day 1 | In-transit

Depart for Lisbon, Portugal. 🌐

Day 2 | Lisbon, Portugal

Arrive in Lisbon, transfer 🚗 and check in to the Dom Pedro Lisboa hotel.

This evening, meet your fellow travelers at a Welcome Reception, with canapés.

Day 3 | Lisbon

Lisbon City Tour. Discover vibrant Lisbon today on a half-day panoramic tour. See the majestic 16th-century Tower of Belém and the nautical Monument to the Discoveries. Visit Jerónimos Monastery, a stunning example of Manueline architecture and lasting tribute to Portugal's Golden Age. Make a photo stop at the elegant Praça do Comércio square, with stunning waterfront views of the Tagus River.

Free Time: Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

Day 4 | Terceira Island, Azores | Angra do Heroísmo

After breakfast, fly to Terceira. Arrive, transfer and check in to the Azoris Angra Garden.

Enrichment: History of the Azores.

Angra do Heroísmo. Take a guided walk of this city founded in 1478. Visit the neo-classical, 19th-century City Hall in the Praça Velha square to learn about the city's rich civic heritage.

Savor flavorful local cuisine at lunch together.

🌐 AHI Connects | Experiential Azorean Dinner. Drive to Quinta do Martelo, an authentic Azorean farmstead to stop at the local market, discover the island's culinary heritage and savor a delicious dinner in the atmospheric farmhouse.

Day 5 | Terceira

Island Tour. Capture the essence of Terceira on a panoramic tour. Stop at viewpoints for stunning island views and in São Sebastião to see its 15th-century church. Break for lunch together and then visit Algar do Carvão to tour the deep volcanic cave and lava tube. (Active) Conclude the day in charming Biscoitos, known for its natural lava rock swimming pools. Opt to take a dip or stroll through the town at leisure.

Day 6 | Faial Island | Horta

After breakfast, take a short flight to Faial.

Faial Tour. After you land, begin an island tour. Visit the Capelinhos Volcano & Interpretation Center, where the submarine eruption of 1957 vastly altered the island's landscape. Stop for lunch and then visit the Caldeira nature reserve to gaze in awe at its massive crater. Continue toward Horta, pausing to appreciate the scenic views of Horta Bay and Pico Mountain.

Arrive and check in to the Azoris Faial Garden.

Free Time: The rest of the day is at your leisure.

15th Century church of São Sebastião

Gorreana Tea plantation

Ribeira Grande

Day 7 | Pico Island | Fail

Vineyards of Pico. Take an early morning ferry ride over to Pico and visit the vineyards in Criação Velha, where grapevines grow from black basalt stone walls, a stunning visual contrast to the deep-blue ocean. Learn about the viticulture techniques used for over 500 years and Pico's mineral-rich Verdelho wine. Relish an Azorean lunch at a local winery.

Lajes & Whaling History. Tour the Whaler's Museum in Lajes, a major whaling hub from the 18th century until 1984. Delve into the Azores' complex whaling history via exhibits of whaling boats, harpoons, historical documents and photos, illustrating the whalers' daily lives. Take the ferry back to Faial and your hotel.

Day 8 | Faial | São Miguel Island | Ponta Delgada

Enrichment: Contemporary Azores.

After the lecture, fly to Ponta Delgada, São Miguel Island. Arrive, have lunch and set out on your guided city walking tour.

Ponta Delgada & Carlos Machado Museum. Take a guided stroll of this capital city to see the grand city gates, constructed of black basalt with whitewashed accents; picturesque squares with colorful Portuguese pavement designs and the 17th-century City Hall. Then, visit the Carlos Machado Museum to discover the archipelago's natural and cultural heritage. Check in to the Octant Ponta Delgada hotel.

Day 9 | São Miguel

Furnas Crater. Drive to the village of Furnas to stand in awe at the Lagoa das Furnas volcanic crater lake, surrounded by misty green hills and dotted with steaming fumaroles, bubbling mud pools and sulfur vents. Watch as a traditional stew is buried in the ground to be cooked by volcanic heat. Later, savor the Cozido das Furnas stew for lunch at a nearby restaurant.

Terra Nostra Park. After lunch, stroll through these beautiful, diverse botanical gardens and marvel at the orange-hued hot-thermal pool.

Gorreana Tea Factory. Visit Europe's oldest tea plantation still in operation to stroll the tea fields and tour the production factory.

Day 10 | São Miguel

Whale Watching. Embark on a thrilling boat expedition to look for sightings of majestic,

Volcanic cave, Algar do Carvão

Furnas
