CALL TO WORSHIP

“Dartmouth Undying”

Dartmouth, there is no music for our singing,

No words to bear the burden of our praise,

Yet how can we be silent and remember

The splendor and the fullness of her days.

Who can forget her soft September sunsets –

Who can forget those hours that passed like dreams?

The long cool shadows floating on the campus;

The drifting beauty where the twilight streams?

Who can forget her sharp and misty mornings,

The clanging bells, the crunch of feet on snow,

Her sparkling noons, the crowding in to Commons,

The long white afternoons, the twilight glow?

See! By the light of many thousand sunsets,

Dartmouth Undying, like a vision starts.

Dartmouth, the gleaming, dreaming walls of Dartmouth,

Miraculously builded in our hearts.

INVOCATION

Responsive Reading:

Ecclesiasticus 44

L. Let us now praise famous men.

P. and our fathers in their generations.

L. The Lord apportioned to them great glory,

P. his majesty from the beginning.

L. There were those who ruled in their kingdoms,

P. and were men renowned for their power,

L. giving counsel by their understanding,

P. and proclaiming prophecies;

L. leaders of the people in their deliberations,

P. wise in their words of instruction;

L. those who composed musical tunes,

P. and set forth verses in writing;
L. rich men furnished with resources,
P. living peaceable in their habitations—
L. all these were honored in their generations,
P. and were the glory of their times.
L. There are some of them who have left a name,
P. So that men declare their praise.
L. And there are some who have no memorial,
P. who have perished as though they had not lived.
L. But these were men of mercy,
P. whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten;
L. their prosperity will remain with their descendants,
P. and their inheritance to their children's children.
L. Their posterity will continue for ever.
P. And their glory will not be blotted out.
L. Their bodies were buried in peace.
P. And their name lives to all generations.
L. Peoples will declare their wisdom.
P. and the congregation proclaims their praise.
L. The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
P. And no torment will ever touch them.
L. In the eyes of the foolish they seem to have died,
P. and their departure was thought to be an affliction.
L. and their going from us to be their destruction;
P. but they are at peace.
L. God created man for incorruption.
P. and made him in the image of his own eternity.
L. The righteous live for ever, and their reward is with the Lord.
P. The Most High takes care of them.
L. With his right hand he will cover them,
P. and with his arm he will shield them.

MOMENT OF SILENT PRAYER

*Singing of "Men of Dartmouth" Hovey (1885) - Wellman (1907)

Men of Dartmouth, give a rouse
For the college on the hill!

For the lone pine above her
And the loyal sons who love her—
Greet the world, from the hills,
with a hail!

For the sons of old
Dartmouth,
The sturdy sons of
Dartmouth—
Though 'round the girdled
earth they roam
Her spell on them remains;
They have the still North in
their hearts,

The hill-winds in their
veins,
And the granite of New Hampshire
In their muscles and their brains

Men of Dartmouth, set a watch
Lest the old traditions fail!
Stand as brother stands by brother!

Dare a deed for the old mother!
Give a rouse, give a rouse, with a will

For the sons of old
Dartmouth
The loyal sons of
Dartmouth—
Around the world they keep for her

Their old chivalric faith:
They have the still North in
their soul,

The hill-winds in their
breath;
And the granite of New Hampshire
Is made part of them till death.
