Class of 1992

2011 Special Recognition Award

The Class of 1992 does not take the phrase "in pursuit of excellence" lightly. Indeed, it has been relentless in its quest to perform and excel at the highest levels. Among several impressive initiatives last year, the mini-reunion program was the star, and in that firmament, the "92nd Day of the Year Virtual Mini-Reunion" really shone, with over 100 classmates participating via Facebook and email, writing in about what they were doing on that particular day. This innovative approach to a widely scattered class brought people together in a fun and intimate way, and was the most popular "event" of the year! In addition to the virtual project, a well-oiled team of 10 City Captains work with the mini-reunion chair to extend mini-reunions around the country. We expect the '92s to "up the ante" as they head into their 20th reunion year.
