Featuring Professor Steve Swayne '57a,
Jacob H. Strauss 1922 Professor of Music

Steve Swayne '57a

Jacob H. Strauss 1922
Professor of Music

Steve Swayne teaches courses in art music, opera, American musical theater, Russian music, and American music. He has written two books—How Sondheim Found His Sound (University of Michigan Press, 2005) and Orpheus in Manhattan: William Schuman and the Shaping of America's Musical Life (Oxford University Press, 2011), which won the 2012 ASCAP Nicolas Slonimsky Award for Outstanding Musical Biography. He served as the 2022 president of the American Musicological Society and held the 2020 Kluge Chair in Modern Culture at the Library of Congress. He received an inaugural Professor John Rassias Faculty Award in 2017. He specializes in making classical music intelligible to non-musicians and in linking the history of music to larger political, cultural, socioeconomic, and historical trends.

Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Dartmouth,

Celebrated in art and song, Europe's great rivers carved borders, created trade routes, and cultivated traditions and cultures that live on today. Unpack once and travel in comfort aboard a first-class ship from Budapest to Amsterdam, enjoying an intimate look at five distinct countries: Hungary, Slovakia, Austria, Germany and The Netherlands.

Cultivate epic moments of your travel memoir while cruising along the Rhine, Main and Danube rivers, passing scenic banks steeped in centuries of human history. Indulge in regional foods and wines, and gaze at wonderfully preserved architecture in some of the world's grandest cities! Plus, follow your heart's desire during ample free time. We've also included an extensive selection of Personalize Your Journey excursions in many ports, allowing you to fully experience this epic region of Europe.

During your voyage, you'll benefit from the value of group travel and enjoy preferred access to popular attractions that will deepen your understanding of Europe. Space is limited and this popular program is sure to sell out quickly, so make your reservation today!
