The area’s historic appeal and a blend of modern commerce and culture combine to make this a destination that begin with a commitment to deliver genuine and authentic experiences.

The memorable sites on your trip may be the panoramic view of the City of Light, the city’s historic sites, or simply the café culture. The high-quality itineraries are designed to suit all interests and appetites. Whether you choose a leisurely stroll among the bustling streets of Paris or a more structured program focused on art and culture, your Travel Director will ensure you are well taken care of!

The other important characters in this story are the guides and lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider perspectives. The result is a trip that allows you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings.

Step into the life of world-renowned artist Claude Monet, whose home in Giverny is now a museum. Explore the ruins of ancient abbeys and the Castle of Caudebec. Enjoy enriching commentary and learn about the spectacular landmarks. Each day you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you gain from your lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider perspective, allows you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings.

The term ‘enrichment’ refers to the educational experience that we strive to offer. It should weave together discovery, education and humanity, allowing you to experience the true meaning of travel.

The 75th Anniversary of D-Day

A bridge remains a symbol of peace and hope. Seventy-five years ago, one of the largest and most complex military invasions in history took place. From the scenes of invasion to the Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial, you'll see evidence of where history has been made.

It begins with our commitment to delivering authentic experiences. Enrichment: Art | Architecture | Culture | Cuisine | History

The story of Normandy begins with the town of Caen. Located on the River Orne, the town is a gateway to the D-Day battlefields and the site of the Bayeux Tapestry, which depicts the Norman Conquest of England. After Caen, the tour heads to Giverny, the home of Claude Monet, and Rouen, the site of the St. John's Church, where the tapestry is on display.

A tactical and psychological blow to Hitler, D-Day will be remembered forever as the moment of World War II when armed forces valiantly advanced across the heavily occupied territory. Under the command of Sir Bernard Montgomery, the troops faced fierce resistance and sustained heavy casualties.

This and tours of the towns mentioned in the text are part of a larger tour package. The tour includes accommodations, meals, and transportation, and is available for purchase in various price ranges. For more information, please contact your travel agent or visit the website of the tour provider.

The area is brimming with a blend of old and new, with unique culinary specialties to savor and world-famous landmarks to admire. Our seven-night cruise begins with a commitment to deliver quality and authentic experiences.

Our itinerary combines all that you love about Europe: art, architecture, culture, cuisine, and military history. The seven-night cruise begins in Paris, with a day to explore the city at your own pace before our Discovery: Paris - Walking Tour. This walking tour offers a glimpse of Paris' most beautiful landmarks during an approximately 2-hour walking tour.

For the less physically inclined, there are also options such as Paris' most beautiful views by boat. The choice is yours! Includes two nights accommodation at the Paris Marriott Opera Ambassador Hotel; a Welcome Reception; daily breakfast; a guided tour of Le Marais; a pre-cruise hotel stay; transfers and flights included for AHI FlexAir participants.

Day 1

Upon arrival, proceed to the ship, and set sail for Rouen, France. Optional shore excursion is available. At the end of the day, return to the comfortable ship.

Day 2

Continue to Abbey Saint-Wandrille. The abbey's history dates back to 690 AD, making it one of the most powerful abbeys in medieval France. Known for its charity toward the poor, it was one of several monasteries built along the Seine. Following the abbey, you will visit the Benedictine Abbey of Jumièges, one of the oldest and most beautiful monasteries in Normandy. The abbey was founded in the 10th century and is known for its graceful stone masonry and deserted interior. The abbey's interior is filled with beautiful art, including murals and stained glass windows.

Day 3

Today and tomorrow you will have the opportunity to choose one of the two excursions. See the green footbridge across the River Seine in the ancient town of Vernon, and then visit the park at the Château de Martainville.

Day 4

• Caen Memorial Peace Museum, Juno Beach and Canadian War Cemetery.

Day 5

This morning, disembark the ship for your visit to the city of Caen. Caen is a historic city in Normandy, France, known for its rich history and cultural heritage. It was the birthplace of William the Conqueror, who later led the Norman conquest of England. Caen is also home to one of the most important medieval castles in France, the Château de Caen. The castle was founded in the 11th century and has been the site of many important events throughout history. The castle is surrounded by beautiful gardens, which are a popular destination for tourists. After spending some time exploring the city, return to the ship and continue on your journey.

Day 6

Optional shore excursion is available. At the end of the day, return to the ship.

Day 7

Depart your gateway city for Paris, France. If you have not chosen the pre-cruise hotel stay, you will be picked up at your hotel and transferred to the ship. Your journey begins as part of the Legacies program, which allows you to experience the city of Paris in a unique way. This program includes a visit to the Louvre Museum, a guided tour of the Eiffel Tower, and a trip on the Seine River.

Day 8

In the afternoon, set sail for Rouen later this evening. Tonight, gather with your fellow travelers to enjoy a farewell reception and dinner on board the ship. The ship will depart Rouen at 7:30 AM, and you will continue your journey through the Seine River.

The art of travel involves more than a blank canvas and a travel agent’s brochure. It involves stepping beyond the norm to begin a conversation, to deliver deeper experiences.

The comfy sofa of your hotel may be the perfect place to curl up and read a magazine, but that’s not what I mean when I say travel. Travel begins with the open slate of a blank page in your journal, which you can fill with whatever moves you. The high-road approach makes me think and wonder. The edges between fiction and fact, the unknown and the known, the man-made and the natural, those are travel experiences.

The places you visit can offer lifelong lessons, whether it’s through the shaping of your perspective or simply the process of discovery. But to truly travel, you must travel with dignity, respect and a habit of inquiry! I call this approach ‘A World Apart’
