Professor David Eisenhower

Grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Professor David Eisenhower is a noted historian of World War II and the Cold War. His 1986 bestseller, Eisenhower: At War 1943–1945, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in History. Eisenhower received a B.A. in history cum laude from Amherst College. Following graduation, he served in the United States Naval Reserve for three years as an officer on the USS Albany; shortly afterward, he earned his J.D. cum laude from The George Washington University Law School. Today, Eisenhower is Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and a Public Policy Fellow at the Annenberg School of Communication and the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, where he teaches “Communication and the Presidency.”

Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

From the old-world sophistication of Portugal and the artistic verve of Spain's Basque country to the Celtic heritage of northwestern France and the regal majesty of London, a riveting canvas of influential seaports awaits you along Europe's Atlantic coastline. Neoclassical palaces, medieval castles, and Romanesque cathedrals illuminate the enduring cultural legacies of European Coastal Civilizations that have played a pivotal role in world history. This exclusive, five-star, small ship itinerary includes an excursion to the solemn shores of Normandy to honor and remember the historic D-Day invasion. Accompanying us to the Normandy beaches is special guest speaker David Eisenhower, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower—Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces during World War II.

Cruise for eight nights aboard the exclusively chartered, five-star LE CHAMPLAIN, featuring only 92 suites and staterooms, each with a private balcony. Dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels and enjoy stately ocean-view accommodations, enriching excursions, and attentive, personal service.

Visit three UNESCO World Heritage Sites, including the astonishing island monastery of Mont-Saint-Michel, the jewel of medieval France; the Christian world's third holiest city of Santiago de Compostela, where you will walk in the footsteps of medieval pilgrims to visit the tomb of Saint James; and spirited Oporto, the center of world-famous port wine and exemplary Moorish-influenced architecture. Cruise Spain's ruggedly beautiful Costa Verde, tour Frank Gehry's visionary Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, and cruise up the River Thames to spend one night aboard ship a mere stone's throw from Tower Bridge in the heart of London.

This popular program features an included cultural excursion in each port and is an excellent value, so we urge you to reserve now while space and early booking savings are available.

Warm regards from Hanover,

Study Leader

On this program a Dartmouth faculty leader will present lectures and lead discussions that will enhance your educational experience. As this brochure goes to press, the faculty representative who will accompany the program has not yet been confirmed. But we wanted to mail this brochure in time for you to make plans to participate. All Dartmouth lecturers share a love for both teaching and travel. Their presence ensures that Dartmouth-sponsored journeys are not only intellectually rewarding but also pleasant travel experiences.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

D-Day and Normandy Beach

In the company of Professor Eisenhower, walk where Allied forces landed on D-Day. At Pointe du Hoc, envision the heroic U.S. Army Second Ranger Battalion scaling this cliff promontory, and view the craters that remain from D-Day bombardments. Survey the serene English Channel and reflect on the commemorative crosses and Stars of David in the American Military Cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer.

His lectures will feature:

Operation Overlord

The concept, planning and personalities behind the D-Day invasion

Triumph and Tragedy

Big-picture consequences of the Allied forces' Normandy landings

DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

Home City/ Lisbon, Portugal

Day 1 and Day 2

Depart your home city and arrive the next day in Lisbon, Portugal's enigmatic capital city, replete with world-class architecture, and embark the five-star LE CHAMPLAIN.

Leixões for Oporto

Day 3

Dock in Leixões and transfer to Oporto, a former Roman outpost and center of port wine trade since the 13th century. The cultural legacy of the Moors finds expression in Oporto's rich architectural details.

Explore Ribeira, Oporto's historical center, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its extraordinary architectural timeline and living history status. Visit the Gothic Igreja de São Francisco, hailed for its lavish gold-plated Baroque interior, and the Neoclassical Palácio da Bolsa, home to the swirling arabesques and ornate stained glass of the gilded Arabian Hall, inspired by the Alhambra in Granada.

Attend the Captain's Welcome Reception and Dinner this evening.

A Coruña, Spain, for Santiago de Compostela

Day 4

Visit Santiago de Compostela, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and stroll along medieval stone streets to the Praza do Obradoiro flanked by the glorious Romanesque cathedral. As a pilgrimage site since the Middle Ages, the cathedral enshrines the tomb of Saint James and is recognized for its intricately carved Baroque façade, original medieval portico, and glittering Churrigueresque altar.

Bilbao

Day 5

The construction of Frank Gehry's titanium-clad Guggenheim Museum hailed the city's cultural renaissance as modernist marvels from Santiago Calatrava and Philippe Starck redefined the post-industrial skyline.

Enjoy a guided tour of the Guggenheim's renowned art collection, and explore the Art Nouveau and Baroque jewels of Bilbao's historical Casco Viejo with a walk along the Paseo del Arenal.

Cruising the Bay of Biscay

Day 6

Exclusive lectures on board the ship while cruising the Bay of Biscay.

Saint-Malo, France, for Mont-Saint-Michel

Day 7

Rising from a tidal plain that appears to be suspended above the sea, the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Mont-Saint-Michel is a sight of soaring spires isolated beyond a stretch of saltwater marsh. This fortified village began as a humble oratory and became a renowned medieval center of learning. Cobblestone streets weave through the village, culminating in the Abbaye du Mont-Saint-Michel, a three-story Gothic masterpiece. Admire the serene cloisters, barrel-roofed réfectoire, and Gothic Salle des Hôtes of the 13th-century La Merveille and the magnificent Église Abbatiale.

Caen for the Normandy Beaches

Day 8

Dock in Caen and make the solemn pilgrimage to the historic Normandy beaches, site of the largest seaborne invasion in history.

Following lunch, continue to Arranches to see the remnants of the Mulberry "A" harbor that was taken across the English Channel to support Allied landings on the Normandy beaches.

Opt to see the 230-foot-long Bayeux Tapestry, which chronicles the Norman Conquest of 1066, or continue to explore the region at leisure.

Cruising the English Channel/ River Thames, London, England

Day 9

This morning, attend an insightful lecture from Professor Eisenhower on board the ship.

Cruise the English Channel across the Strait of Dover and continue up the River Thames, a memorable passage possible only by small ship. See Britain's history revealed as you pass the towering skyline and take in monumental views of Greenwich's Observation Tower, the Tower of London, Norman Foster's emerald-hued Gherkin, and Renzo Piano's sky-piercing Shard.

Dock alongside HMS Belfast—whose guns fired some of the first shots on D-Day—in view of Tower Bridge. Attend the Captain's Farewell Reception this evening.

London/Home City

Day 10

Following breakfast, disembark and continue on the London's Enduring History Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight home.
