Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

The earliest records of the Vikings arriving in Gaelic regions of Scotland date from the eighth century, as legions of seafaring warriors sought their fortunes in a new part of the world. Our new, specially-curated 10-day program explores the mighty Norse-Gael kingdom's legendary impact on Scotland, the far-reaching Faroe Islands, Iceland, and beyond. Together, we'll discover the myths and stories of the Nordic Vikings and the Gaels of Scotland!

You will enjoy the luxuries of the exclusively chartered, five-star LE BELLOT—featuring only 92 suites and staterooms, each with a private balcony. Cruise the North Atlantic Ocean from Glasgow, Scotland, to the remote Faroe Islands, ending in Reykjavík, Iceland. Each day offers opportunities to visit diverse ports, from endearing villages with turf-roofed houses to bustling cities. Explore islands brimming with fascinating geology and archaeological sites, and gaze in awe at thundering waterfalls and wind-blown hills. Along the way, our experts share their knowledge and perspectives on the histories of these remarkable lands.

Joining us on this program are alumni from Brown University, Fordham University, and Tufts University. This exclusive travel program is expected to sell out quickly, so book now while space and early booking savings are still available.

Faculty Leader

Paul Musselwhite is Associate Professor of History at Dartmouth College. His research centers on the early British Empire and colonial America, with a particular focus on the development of the plantation as an institution and on the relationship between plantation societies and English and Scottish merchants. At Dartmouth he teaches classes on British colonialism in the Americas, plantations and slavery, and the American Revolution. A native of Wales, Professor Musselwhite received his B.A. degree from the University of Oxford and his Ph.D. from the College of William and Mary, and before coming to Dartmouth he previously taught at the University of Glasgow.

GUEST SPEAKER

COLIN RICHARDS

Dr. Colin Richards is a professor of archaeology at the University of the Highlands and Islands in Scotland. He is a leading expert on stone circles, specializing in the Neolithic period in Orkney, architecture, and monumentality. From Neolithic sites in Britain to Easter Island and across the Pacific, Dr. Richards has been involved in a number of interesting excavations and fieldwork projects. Past projects include co-writing "Stonehenge for the Ancestors: Part 1. Landscape and Monuments" and co-directing the AHRC-funded "Rapa Nui: Landscapes of Construction" project. Dr. Richards also co-wrote and edited the book, "Building the Great Stone Circles of the North," which investigates the remarkable history and cultural significance of the great stone structures built throughout Scotland.

Standing Stones of Callanish

DISCOVER THE FAROES

The lush, green archipelago of 18 islands known as the Faroes dates back to the Ice Age, when volcanic activity and glaciers carved its captivating cliffs, waterfalls, and rocky coastlines. Tucked between Norway and Iceland, the name Føroyar, or Faroe, is Old Norse for sheep, which continue to outnumber residents by nearly two to one. Settled by the Norse in the ninth century, the islands remained isolated for centuries. Today, the self-governing Faroe Islands—now part of the Danish Realm—continue to attract visitors with their authentic Faroese culture, warm hospitality, and breathtaking beauty.

CELEBRATING 40 YEARS

GOHAGAN & COMPANY

10-DAY/8-NIGHT ITINERARY

Depart Home City

Day 1

Depart home city for Scotland.

Glasgow, Scotland/Embark

Day 2

Arrive in Glasgow, famed for its trade and shipbuilding history, elegant Victorian homes, and public buildings. Embark the LE BELLOT. (D)

Isle of Iona

Day 3

Cruise to the Isle of Iona, the birthplace of Christianity in Scotland, and visit the restored Iona Abbey. Notice the churchyard's intricate Celtic crosses, see the Augustinian nunnery, and stand on Torr an Aba to admire panoramic views across the Sound of Iona. Tonight, gather for the Captain's Welcome Reception. (B,L,R,D)

Kyle of Lochalsh

Day 4

Venture out to discover the village of Kyle of Lochalsh, a spectacular gem nestled in the Scottish Highlands and surrounded by imposing castles, lochs, moors, and mountains. Take a guided tour of the 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, set on the banks of Loch Duich. Following your tour, enjoy a scenic drive around the Isle of Sky. (B,L,D)

Stornoway/Callanish

Standing Stones/ Isle of Lewis

Day 5

Call at Stornoway on the Isle of Lewis and continue on an excursion to the 5,000-year-old Neolithic ruins of the Standing Stones of Callanish. Among Scotland's best-preserved ruins, the stones form a cross shape and predate Stonehenge. Although no known reason for their existence remains, historians and archaeologists speculate that the Standing Stones were once a setting for ritual activities and astronomical observances. Discover Dun Carloway Pictish Broch, one of the best-preserved of its kind in the Hebrides, and continue north to see the Gearrannan Blackhouse Village, a fascinating living museum. This cluster of traditional stone houses was abandoned in the late 1970s and eventually restored as an island landmark. After lunch on board the ship, enjoy the afternoon at leisure to explore Stornoway, or choose to visit Lewis Castle, home to a Victorian estate. (B,L,D)

Tórshavn, Faroe Islands, Denmark/Kirkjubøur/ Kollafjørður

Day 6

Explore the island of Streymoy. Begin in the municipality of Tórshavn, founded by Norsemen in the 10th century. Navigate the narrow, historic lanes of Tinganes, which are bordered by traditional grass-roofed houses. Transfer to Kirkjubøur to visit the ruins of St. Magnus

Iona Abbey,
Isle of Iona

Dun Carloway Broch, Isle of Lewis

Cathedral and the 900-year-old Roykstovan, the oldest wooden house in Europe. Continue to Kollafjørður to visit a traditional Faroese church and see Dúvugarðar, a national heritage museum located in the remote village of Saksun. (B,L,D)

Cruise the North Atlantic Ocean Day 7

Enjoy five-star amenities on board or attend an enriching lecture as you cruise the North Atlantic Ocean. Gather with friends to trade stories of your adventure thus far and look out for dolphins, whales, and seabirds. (B,L,D)

Djúpivogur, Iceland/ Jökulsárlón Day 8

Welcome to Iceland! On a drive from Djúpivogur, soak up the beauty of the dramatic landscape. Here, snowcapped mountains rise from grassy plains and fertile lowlands give way to vertiginous cliffs. Discover the legendary Jökulsárlón ice lagoon in UNESCO World Heritage-designated Vatnajökull National Park, the largest of Iceland's national parks. Embark specially designed boats for a private cruise and the chance to touch ice blocks broken from Breidamerkurjökull, one of Vatnajökull's glacier outlets. You may also spot a seal or two! Witness the mesmerizing Diamond Beach, where glistening spheres of ice stand out against a black-sand backdrop. (B,L,D)

Heimaey, Westman Islands/Cruise along Surtsey Island Day 9

Arrive at Heimaey Island, part of the Vestmannaeyjar (Westman Islands) archipelago. Drive past Sprangan, where locals train for the island sport of rope swinging. See the ruins of ancient Viking farmhouses dating from A.D. 650 in Herjólfssdalur Valley. Continue to Stórhöfði's lava fields of Eldfell, known as the "Pompeii of the North," and tour the Eldheimar Museum, which chronicles its fateful activity of 1973. Cruise by Surtsey Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the youngest and most fragile islands on Earth Island. The island is a natural laboratory for scientists who study the plants and animals of the astonishing new landform. Cap off your day with a convivial Captain's Farewell Reception. (B,L,R,D)

Reykjavík/Disembark/ Return to Home City Day 10

Following breakfast, disembark and continue on the Reykjavík Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight home. (B)

Tórshavn, Faroe Islands
