The incomparable view of the sea on either side of Honfleur, as well as the town itself, offers a unique opportunity to explore the town’s history and architecture.

Between the 13th and 16th centuries, Honfleur was a major port in the Bay of the Seine, where ships carrying goods from all over Europe would dock. This made Honfleur a hub of trade and commerce, and the town quickly grew in size and prosperity. Today, Honfleur remains a charming and picturesque town with many beautiful buildings that reflect its rich history.

A World of Discovery

For our most exhaustive approach to the history of the Battle of Normandy, this AHI Journey for the curious traveler! AHI has assembled a team of experts to bring you the journey of a lifetime. Your journey begins upon arrival in Normandy. This is the site of the invasion of Normandy, the D-Day landing sites, and the site of the liberation of France. Everything is packed with these exceptional journeys and more!

Delight in the scenery as it evolves from the open fields of Normandy to the picturesque harbor of Honfleur. Encourage a fascinating timeline of Norman history, from Viking invasion to the Norman kings and beyond.

This tour is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for history lovers and enthusiasts. The journey begins with a visit to Calvados, home of the world-famous Calvados apple brandy, followed by a visit to the historic city of Caen, where the battle for the liberation of France was fought. You will also have an opportunity to visit the glorious D-Day beaches, which were the scene of the most significant battles of World War II. This once-in-a-lifetime experience will include a visit to the famous D-Day beaches and a tour of the Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial, one of the largest American cemeteries in Europe.

Witness Paris illuminated over its two naves that resemble upturned hulls. Nicolas Poussin's view of the river, painted at this site in the 17th century, was the inspiration for Claude Monet's “Painting in Paris” series. The painting captures the beauty of the Seine at night, with its light reflections and the remains of the Église Saint-Pierre. Visit the Jardin des Tuileries, a garden that has been a popular spot for strolling and picnicking since the 17th century. Enjoy the beautiful views of the Château de Chantilly, a great example of French Renaissance architecture. Visit the Musée Condé, which houses a magnificent collection of French and Italian art, including masterpieces by Monet, Degas, and van Gogh.

Learn about rural life in Honfleur. Explore the Vieux Bassin, a charming harbor that dates back to the 11th century, where you can see the traditional fishing boats of the region. The town is known for its beautiful views, which are captured in the paintings of impressionists like Monet and Chagall. Visit the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Honfleur, which houses a collection of paintings and sculptures by local artists.

Day 1 | Welcome to Normandy
Arrival and check-in at the hotel. Free time to settle in and explore the city on your own.

Day 2 | La Manche | Honfleur
Discover the historic harbor in Honfleur’s town center. The historic harbor is a popular spot for fishing and yachting, and is a great place to see the traditional fishing boats of the region. The town is known for its beautiful views, which are captured in the paintings of impressionists like Monet and Chagall.

Day 3 | Caen | Bay of Mont St. Michel
After breakfast, disembark the ship for a day excursion to Caen, the historic capital of Normandy. Visit the Abbaye aux Hommes, one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Europe. The abbey was founded by William the Conqueror in 1066, and is home to the tombs of William the Conqueror and his wife Matilda of Flanders.

Day 4 | Bay of Mont St. Michel | Caen | Bay of Mont St. Michel
After breakfast, disembark the ship for a day excursion to the Bay of Mont St. Michel. Visit the site of the Battle of Normandy, which was the scene of some of the most significant battles of World War II. The site is home to the famous Mont St. Michel, a medieval Benedictine abbey that is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Day 5 | Rouen | Les Andelys | Les Jonques | Vernon | Monet, His Life in Giverny.
Discover the historical city of Rouen, which was the scene of the Battle of Normandy. Visit the Abbaye de Jumièges, a monastery that was founded in the 7th century and is home to the tombs of saints. Continue to see the ruins of the Église St Pierre.

Day 6 | Seine Valley | La Roche-Guyon | Les Andelys | Martainville-Épreuville | Château de Martainville
Discover the Seine Valley, one of the most beautiful regions in France. Visit the Château de Martainville, a castle that was built at the end of the 12th century. The castle is home to a fascinating collection of furniture and housewares, and is a great place to learn about the history of rural life in the region.

Day 7 | Vernon | Giverny | Argenteuil | The Latin Quarter, Paris
Visit the picturesque town of Vernon, which was the scene of the Battle of Normandy. Visit the Musée de la Vallée du Seine, which focuses on the history of the region. Continue to see the ruins of the Église St Pierre.

Day 8 | Paris
Explore the city on your own, or take a guided tour of Paris. Visit the Château de Versailles, one of the most famous castles in France, which was the scene of the Battle of Normandy. Take a walk through the palace’s opulent rooms, including the iconic blue kitchen and cheerful yellow dining room. Return to the ship for lunch.

Day 9 | Departure
Disembark the ship at the end of the day. Free time to explore the city on your own. Return to the hotel for lunch. After lunch, return to the ship and prepare to depart.
