Cruising from Lisbon to Barcelona

THROUGH THE STRAIT OF GIBRALTAR

aboard the exclusively chartered, four-masted
five-star WIND STAR

2024 Departure: April 10 to 19

featuring faculty leader Christopher MacEvitt, Professor of Religion

CRUISING FROM LISBON TO BARCELONA

Experience Portugal's distinguished capital city Lisbon, chic Barcelona in Spain, and everything in between through what was once considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be the Pillars of Hercules, marking the boundary of the known world. This 10-day, 8-night journey features unique coastal jewels found only along the Iberian Peninsula, spanning two continents at the crossroads of faith and enlightenment during the Age of Discovery. The indelible experience is only made better aboard the 5-star WIND STAR, a yacht-style sailing ship. Admire three of the world's most treasured UNESCO World Heritage Sites—Portugal's charming Algarve region, the port city of Cádiz, and Seville's astonishing Alcázar, best known for its stunning architecture and beautiful gardens. Tour Granada's magnificent Alhambra Palace, and gaze in wonder at the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Explore Moroccan Tangier, which is considered the gate of Africa that has seen many ruling empires over the centuries.

Alumni Travel

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician and Roman mariners and discover the cultural legacy of the most sophisticated civilization of the Middle Ages. This exclusive 10-day journey spans two continents—featuring the remarkable coastal gems found only along the Iberian Peninsula.

The 5-star WIND STAR embodies the classic yacht experience under its billowing white sails—complete with elegant accommodations, an included excursion in each port, and the ability to dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger vessels. This state-of-the-art small vessel features only 74 ocean-view staterooms.

Explore some of the world's most treasured UNESCO World Heritage Sites—including Portugal's picturesque Algarve region. Traverse the port city of Cádiz into the heart of Seville and visit the astounding Alcázar. Enjoy a full-day excursion to behold the Pillars of Hercules spanning the legendary Strait of Gibraltar and Granada's magnificent Alhambra Palace. Explore Tangier in Morocco, and conclude your Iberian exploration in the iconic Spanish city of Barcelona.

Joining us on this program are alumni from University of Chicago, Columbia University, and University of Southern California. This popular program is an excellent value so we urge you to reserve now while space and early booking savings are available.

Christopher MacEvvit
specializes in the history of medieval Christian communities,

particularly around the Mediterranean. After studying Classics and Medieval Studies at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut (B.A. 1995), he did his graduate work at Princeton University in the department of History (Ph.D. 2002). His courses explore both the ancient and medieval history of Christian communities, with particular interests in religious identity and gender. His first book examines the idea and practice of tolerance in the twelfth-century crusader principalities in Syria and Palestine, and he has recently completed a book on Franciscans who died as martyrs in Islamic lands. He currently working on a project about competing images of Jerusalem in the fourteenth-century Mediterranean.

Trade Routes To Discovery

Discover the architectural treasures, dynamic cultures, and compelling history of the Iberian Peninsula, revealed throughout its fortified medieval towns and coastal cities. The collaboration and joint influences of Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian, and Moorish cultures ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture, and philosophy—creating the catalyst for the Golden Age of Discovery and global trade of the 15th through 18th centuries. Ships sailing from Iberian shores to the New World brought back riches to the peninsula, generating great wealth among this unique mélange of cultures and sparking a veritable renaissance in art and architecture. From the coastal cities of Portugal and Spain to the bustling port of Tangier, Morocco, experience the Mediterranean tradition of these seaside cities, towns, and villages as you embark on your voyage in the wake of mariners from centuries past.

FLAVORS OF IBERIA

The Iberian Peninsula has a rich culinary history that has changed the face of global cuisine, most remarkably with dishes featuring bold flavors and spices. One of the most famous foods hailing primarily from Valencia, Spain, is paella—a flavorful rice dish traditionally made with olive oil, chicken broth, vegetables, and a variety of meats and seafood. The dish got its name from the traditional wide, shallow pan used to cook it, with paella literally meaning “frying pan” in Valencian Spanish. The signature yellow color of the dish traditionally comes from saffron, but turmeric and calendula can be used as substitutes. Paella had humble beginnings, originally being considered a lunchtime meal for farmers and laborers and made with whatever was on hand at that time. Another popular dish native to the region is couscous, which has roots in Morocco and is prepared from ground wheat rolled into pellets. Experience these savory cultural staples firsthand on our tour with a cooking presentation and lunch in Tangier, Morocco, and a trip to the market with a local chef in Valencia, followed by a paella cooking demonstration.

10-DAY/8-NIGHT ITINERARY

Depart home city

Day 1

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Lisbon, Portugal.

Lisbon, Portugal/ Embark Ship

Day 2

Arrive in Lisbon and embark the WIND STAR and enjoy the Captain's Welcome Reception that evening. (L,R,D)

Portimão, Portugal, for Lagos

Day 3

Admire Ponta de Piedade, a group of coastal limestone rock formations along the Algarve coast. Continue on to the port town of Lagos, once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa. The seaside resort is also an important yachting center organizing international regattas. Visit the statue of Infante Dom Henrique and the Church of St. Anthony, with its intricate carved wood interior. Built in 1707 and re-built after an earthquake in 1755, the church is a fine example of Baroque architecture. (B,L,D)

Cádiz, Spain, for Seville

Day 4

Start the day with a tour of the impressive Alcázar, the ancient Palace of King Al-Mu'tamid featuring a Moorish and Spanish architecture that has been continually added to over the centuries. Later, see the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Alcázar, the 14th-century residence of Seville's Moroccan and Spanish rulers. (B,L,D)

Strait of Gibraltar/ Tangier, Morocco

Day 5

While sailing through the Strait of Gibraltar connecting the Atlantic Ocean and Mediterranean Sea, marvel at the sight of the Rock of Gibraltar. In Tangier, experience the bridging of Spanish and Moorish cultures in the colorful Medina at a lunch that includes a cooking demonstration.

Return to the ship later that evening and enjoy dinner onboard. (B,L,D)

Malaga for Granada, Spain/ Alhambra

Day 6

In Granada, explore the Alhambra Palace and brilliant gardens of the Palace of Generalife, collectively a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Originally designed as a military area, the Alhambra became the residence of the royal court of Granada in the middle of the 13th century, and later a citadel with high ramparts and defensive towers. A footpath from Alhambra's northern side leads to Generalife, the former rural residence of the emirs who ruled this part of Spain in the 13th and 14th centuries. Stroll through its magnificent gardens, considered among the most breathtaking in the world. (B,L,D)

Cruise the Mediterranean Sea Day 7

Enjoy a day at leisure and take part in 5-star amenities offered on board as the ship cruises through the vibrant blue waters along the coast of Spain. (B,L,D)

Valencia Day 8

On the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast) of Spain, the sun-kissed city of Valencia was founded as a Roman colony in 138 B.C. amidst a fertile plain of orange groves—an ingredient that's become a staple in the city's foodie culture. Explore the culinary traditions of Valencia on a full-day excursion that includes a trip to the market with a local chef, followed by a cooking demonstration with a special nod to paella—a flavorful rice dish being one of the best-known of its kind in Spanish cuisine. Valencia is also known for its horchata, a refreshing drink.

Barcelona Day 9

A vibrant city located on the northeastern coast of Spain, Barcelona is known for its spectacular and stunning architecture. Discover the UNESCO-inscribed marvels of Antoni Gaudí, including the revered Basílica de la Sagrada Família. Construction of the basilica began in 1882 and it is still unfinished to this day, with an estimated completion date of 2026. The basilica is known for its intricate architecture, unique design elements, and stunning stained glass windows. Take in the sights of the city with a panoramic tour and return to the ship to enjoy dinner onboard. (B,L,D)

Barcelona/Return to home city Day 10

After enjoying breakfast on the ship, disembark and transfer to the airport for your return flight home or continue on to the Barcelona Post-Program. (B)
